

Bravery Ladder

hard

6. Ordering hot chocolate.
5. Telling the hot chocolate order to the cashier directly with the cashier asking the questions from a script (e.g., what can I get you? Do you want whip cream or no whip cream?) Tip: It's a great idea to talk to the cashier privately first so they know your child is working on being brave.
4. Telling the hot chocolate order to the parent in front of cashier with the cashier asking the questions from a script (e.g., what can I get you? Do you want whip cream or no whip cream).
3. Telling the hot chocolate order to the parent in front of cashier with the parent asking the questions from a script (e.g., what can I get you? Do you want whip cream or no whip cream?).
2. Practice ordering hot chocolate in the shop but not near the cashier.
1. Practice ordering hot chocolate at home with you. Parent plays the role of the cashier.

Rewards

6. Family celebration with cupcakes and party games.
5. Play tea with real tea and cookies with Papa.
4. New stuffy.
3. 2 extra books at bedtime.
2. Outing to buy new barrettes.
1. Cool patch for backpack.

easy

